

A Canadian Encounter

Reflections on Attending a Summer School for Indigenous North American Christians

Wednesday 4 March

From 7.15pm for a glass of wine or juice, 7.30pm start

Free & open to all,
at Sarum College

In the summer of 2014 Mark Manterfield spent three weeks in Canada, during two of which he attended the Native Ministries Consortium Summer School for Indigenous Christians training for church ministry at Vancouver School of Theology.

During this evening Mark will explain how he came to be there, describe some of his experiences and reflect on them. Expect some photographs, music and singing along the way.

Mark Manterfield is Bursar of Sarum College, Treasurer of the Fellowship of the Maple Leaf, and a Governor at Sarum Academy. He is a member of the Education Team at St Thomas's Church.

The evening is co-sponsored by Sarum College and St Thomas's and will be hosted by Revd Canon David Linaker

